LENINGRAD CRIME RATE HIGH;
PASSPORT, KOLKHOZ REGULATIONS VIOLATED

MVD CHIEF NOTES LENINGRAD CRIME -- Leningradskaya Pravda, No 170, 21 Jul 49

The incidence of general crime, robbery, murder, and juvenile delinquency in Leningrad has been too high. Leningrad citizenry and organizations must aid the police and MVD in combating crime. -- General-leytenant I. Shiktorov, chief, Leningrad Oblast Administration, Ministry of Internal Affairs.

PASSPORT REGULATIONS VIOLATED -- Stalinskoye Znamya, No 108, 4 Jun 49

All citizens who change their place of residence within a populated point or arrive for permanent or temporary residence in any other populated point are required to register within 24 hours. Registration and signing out makes it possible to keep track of citizens' arrivals and departures. It is unlawful to violate the passport system.

Certain enterprise directors and citizens, however, are grossly violating the passport system. The director of the Andizhan grain-procurement base, for example, hired eight persons whose passports were not verified. Many workers in this office have passports with no notation regarding their hiring.

Such violations of the passport system permit shady characters to hide from the police.

Directors of enterprises and party and trade union organizations, particularly those in hiring sections, must see that all employees have their official documents: passports, note of registry, work book, etc. -- N. Makhkamov, chief, first section of the police, Andizhan, Uzbek SSR.

The Chita Oblast Public Prosecutor has ordered all courts to step up their drive against practices which lead to losses in kolkhozes. The Peoples' Court of Nerchinsko-Kavkazskiy Rayon sentenced Korlov, kolkhoz brigade leader, to 8 years' loss of freedom for the practice of selling feed designated for use in kolkhoz animal husbandry, permitting cattle to die of the plague.

The oblast court sentenced I. S. Plyaskin, accountant, and A. V. Kuznetsov, chairman of the "Bol'shevik" Kolkhoz, Ononskiy Rayon, to 8 and 5 years' loss of freedom, respectively. These two men slaughtered 388 sheep for use as meat without first consulting a general conference of the kolkhoz workers. Plyaskin also illegally removed cows from the kolkhoz.
